News Around Town

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

I liked this one:

A man browsing in a pet shop was approached by an attractive young girl who asked if she could assist in his selection.

"Well," the prospective customer replied, "I have been thinking of getting a pet for a client of mine. He is a semi-invalid; can't get out of the house. Man about 60; is very wealthy; nice sort of chap. He has no relatives—so the idea of a pet came to me."

The girl considered, and then she brightened visibly and said, "I think I have just the thing!"

"Good," said the man. "What kind of a pet do you suggest?"

Replied the bright young girl: "Me." —Wall St. Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Mitchell have started building their new home on Oakleigh Street.

Members of the Appomattox Chapter, U. D. C., at their meeting last Thursday evening voted to change the meeting date from the third Thursday in the month to the first Thursday. Members take note.

Mrs. Watkins Abbitt, will accompany Mrs. William M. Tuck, of South Boston, to Richmond today, where they will attend a reception at the Governor's Mansion this afternoon, given by Mrs. Thomas B. Stanley in honor of the wives of the legislators. Mrs. Abbitt will pour punch at the reception. This evening they will be joined by Representatives Abbitt and Tuck, who will drive down from Washington to attend the Jefferson - Jackson Day dinner at Hotel John Marshall.

Next week sees the big day for those born on a February 29. They have a birthday only once in four years! Included on this list are Mrs. W. S. Bryant, Herbert Richardson, and Mrs. Frank F. Carr, and Mrs. Morton Ferguson. No doubt there are others: if so, send in the names. And a four-fold happy birthday!

Must be time to plant flower seed —with all the folks going around selling seed.

Mrs. F. C. Dresser is in Richmond, where she will attend the tea at the Governor's Mansion given by Mrs. Thomas B. Stanley. Mrs. Dresser will join her brother, State Senator Chas. T. Moses and attend the Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner at the John Marshall Hotel this evening.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George C. Franklin, Jr. is a girl, Paulette Faye, born Wednesday, Feb. 15 at Lynchburg General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fulks motored to Richmond Tuesday night and attended a dinner and dance at the Tantilla Farm, of those connected with the Division of Motor Vehicles.

On Saturday morning, the town water tank at the Dr. Christian lot will be drained for painting and repairing. Water service on the south side of town will be interrupted only while the tank is being drained.

On Tuesday, March 6, at 9 A. M., all children who will begin school in September at Appomattox Elementary school are asked to come to the Appomattox Health Center to receive cards for appointment from Mrs. Mildred Alvis for the hour you are to be at the Pre-School Clinic. All children who will begin at the Oakville and Pamplin schools are asked to come March 8, beginning at 9 A. M., and children who will go to Evergreen, Spout Spring and Vera schools will come the same day, from 1 to 3 P. M.

Food leaders, Mrs. R. W. Stanley and Mrs. D. E. Caldwell Jr., planned a luncheon for the Appomattox Home Demonstration Club combining the menus of the February and March meetings. The meeting opened at 11:00 in the Presbyterian Sunday School room. The devotional was given by Mrs. C. G. O'Brien. "Mental Health" was the topic discussed by Mrs. Robert Hubbard, the Federation Goal Chairman. Mrs. Jerry Miller was welcomed into the club. After a delicious lunch at 12:30, Mrs. R. W. Stanley, hostess for the meeting, served coffee and dessert.

A book review for the World Missions program will be given at the Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church by Mrs. C. F. P. Crawley on Wed., Feb. 29, at 8:00. The public is invited to attend.

Crowded

"Why don't you live with her parents," suggested the other.

"That's no good," said the prospective husband. "You see, they are still living with their parents."

Health and Beauty

Your neckline can tell your age out if you are willing to do a few simple exercises to stretch the neck muscles, you can have a lovely, youthful looking neckline for many, many years.

There seems to be a very important connection between physical health and physical postures and emotional and mental outlook. If life is a bit ragged for you, don't assume a poor posture, duck your chin into your neck and miss out on what fun may come your way.

It would be good for you to stretch your emotional and mental muscles as well as your physical muscles. Exercises for your neck and chin will help you to relax.

Try standing or sitting tall, roll your head in a circle, first to the right and then to the left. Make this as complete a roll as possible, reaching in every direction.

Another: Stand or sit tall. Lower your head backward to the right. Lift head. Lower head backward to the left. Lift head. Continue, alternating.

Most important — keep your head and your approach TALL. Try not to allow discouragements to affect your health and posture.

A wonderful exercise for the chinline is bite down on an imaginary object just as hard as you can. Don't close down with your teeth hard because this would do your teeth harm. Stop just short of really chomping down.

Don't waste your money on a lot of junk that is advertised to make you look younger in just 60 seconds. Your common sense should tell you that this is just so much exaggerated nonsense. There is no liquid that you can smooth on and have sagging chin lines disappear. It would be wonderful if there was such a liquid, but doctors tell us there isn't.

The best thing you can do to stay young looking is to maintain good health. Exercise and eat the foods that you know are good for you. Don't allow yourself to put on too much weight. Try to keep a serene and fair outlook on life.

Next, Please!

A club of eccentric young Britishers had for one of their rules that on Tuesday evenings any man who asked in the club room a question which he was unable to answer himself should pay a fine of ten shillings.

One evening Tomlinson asked: "Why doesn't a ground squirrel leave any dirt around the top of his hole when he digs it?"

After some deliberation he was called upon to answer his own question. "That's easy," he said. "The squirrel starts at the bottom and digs up."

"All very nice," suggested a member, "but how does it get to the bottom?"

"That's your question," answered Tomlinson.

FFA Boys Advance in Degre From Green Hands Upward

The Future Farmers of America organization is set up as are many other groups to award or advance its members by degrees. When a person is called a "green hand" it usually means that he is lacking in experience in whatever it is that he is trying to do. Shortly after freshmen boys begin taking vocational agriculture, they are initiated into the F. F. A. and are called Green Hands. This is the first degree of membership and is given to those students before they have had much experience in the organization, or have had much time to learn how the F. F. A. works.

Minimum qualifications for election to the Green Hand Degree are: to be regularly enrolled in a vocational agriculture class and have an acceptable plan for a supervised farming program, be familiar with the purposes of the F. F. A., be able to recite the Creed of the Future Farmers of America, and to receive a majority vote of the members of the local chapter.

After having been in the F. F. A. for one year as Green Hands members may qualify for the Chapter Farmer Degree. Some of the requirements for this second degree are: to have successfully completed one year of vocational agriculture; have in operation an improved supervised farming program; be familiar with purposes and program of work of State FFA association; be able to lead a group discussion fifteen minutes; and have earned at least $50 from supervised farming program.

The third F. F. A. Degree, that of State Farmer. This degree requires two years of vocational agriculture work in vocational agriculture, a display of superior ability in the local F. F. A. chapter. Only two per cent of all F. F. A. membership is awarded in any one year may be given the State Farmer Degree. Only the first two degrees mentioned are awarded by the State Association at the Annual FFA State Convention at Blacksburg, Virginia, every summer.

The fourth and highest degree awarded by the Future Farmers of America is that of American Farmer, which is given annually at the national F. F. A. convention each October in Kansas City. To obtain this high honor a boy must have been an active member in the F. F. A. for at least 36 months continuously, must have a outstanding farming program, must have earned and invested at least $1,000, and have demonstrated outstanding leadership ability as have a satisfactory scholastic record.

WASHINGTON NOTES

HOG BUYING

In a swing through the Mid-West hog belt Secretary of Agriculture Benson told farmers that a Governmental program to buy hogs at supported prices "would help you more than it would ever help you." A raise in the price of hogs 5 cents a pound would cost the Government almost a billion dollars and set off an avalanche of demands from other farmers that the Government do likewise for their product.

JOBS PLENTIFUL

Dr. Winifred Helmes, Labor Department official, recently stated that "at no time in our history have job horizons been greater for women in this country." Critical shortages in teaching and the health professions and excellent opportunities for qualified women in accounting were cited as fields for women applicants.

BUSINESS FAILURES

During 1955 — a year of rapid and widespread business expansion —the country experienced approximately 21,000 business failures.

HURRICANE FORECASTS

With history's most terrific hurricane season still fresh in mind, the greatest concentrated attack made on man's most powerful weather problem — how to forecast hurricanes — is now underway at the Miami, Florida this May. Scores of scientists of several nations will cooperate in an effort to develop foolproof 24-hour hurricane forecast.

RUSSIAN TOUR

A group of 8 religious leaders of this country under the auspices of the National Council of Churches, will make a ten-day tour of Russia, leaving on March 1. Russian orthodox church leaders will come to this country in June.

Woman's Club Dinner Meeting

The Junior Woman's Club of Appomattox will have a dinner meeting Tuesday evening, February 28, at the Elementary School Cafeteria. Mrs. James W. Wiltshire, Jr., of Lynchburg, First Vice-President of the Virginia Federation of Womens Clubs, will be present to install the following officers: President, Miss Ellen Paulette; First Vice-President, Miss Lois Wood; Second Vice-President, Mrs. Joyce Curorke; Secretary, Mrs. Shirley Torrence; Treasurer, Mrs. Morton Ferguson; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Billy Conner; Historian, Miss Jane Cole; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Stanley Boyce.

The dinner meeting will be held at 6:30.

SPOUT SPRING P.-T. A.

The P.-T. A. of Spout Spring school held its regular monthly meeting at the school Monday night, Feb. 20, at 7:30. A very interesting program was given by Mrs. N. H. Jones, program chairman, on Founders Day. Recitations were given by N. H. Jones Jr. and D. C. Floyd, in keeping with Abraham Lincoln's and George Washington's birthdays. Special music was rendered by the pupils of the school.

The next meeting will be held on March 21, with Dr. DeWitt Evans as guest speaker.

In FASHION Now

Massive is the key word for fine jewelry coming up soon. Dimensions in jewelry will echo the prevailing trend in women's clothes. To underscore the slim but sophisticated silhouettes women will probably want to wear an eyecatching piece of jewelry.

The straight, highwaisted line is now. New draping interest will be found at the top of dresses either in sleeves, sleeve mountings and bustline, and neckline. One outstanding French designer, has put much emphasis on the Carace, the short top that is cut off at the waist and is sleeveless.

Many new spring coats will be split up the back on sides to the shoulderblades or just below the arm openings. In expensive fabrics and lush furs the coats that resemble long scarves with sleeves don't look as if they could warm up anybody, least of all the person inside them.

Another new favorite with the women who must have the latest is the "slip of a dress," that is willowy, bias cut, and sleeveless and worn with the baby jacket. You need an almost perfect figure to look nice in this number.

A new silhouette which eases up the stark look of the slim dress is the winged dress with movement built in, in semi-attached panels and deep inverted pleats set at the sides under the armholes.

Short - sleeved and sleeveless wool coats with dresses to match are fashionable. These are going over well just now in South Florida.

LEE CLUB NEWS

The Lee Demonstration Club held its February meeting in the home of Mrs. W. E. Inge, with sixteen members present. The buiness meeting was held in the morning, and Mrs. D. M. Wood gave a demonstration on cereals. She made "Dogs in the Blanket" and "Prune Filled Bars," which were very good. At noon a bountiful lunch was served, which was enjoyed by every one present.

High School P. T. A. Meets Next Tuesday

The regular monthly meeting of the Appomattox High School P.-T. A. will be held in the school cafeteria on Tuesday, Feb. 28, at 8:00 o'clock. The Student Cooperative Association, with Miss Shawn Mabley as program chairman, will present the program. All patrons are urged to be present.

Oakville P.T.A. Has Minstrel

The Oakville Minstrels will be presented at the Oakville school Friday and Saturday night, Feb. 24 and 25. The performance is for the benefit of the Oakville P.-T. A. The public is invited to attend and enjoy an evening of entertainment.

THE AIMS AND PURPOSES OF THE F. F. A.
